Xref levels:

A: Direct replacement!

B: Pin-to-pin replacement but minor changes required. For NOR Flash these changes often refer to simple swapping erase codes.

C: Significant changes are required.

Important notice!

This cross reference list is only to assist to identify the closest alternative AMIC part number. AMIC does not warrant and does not guarantee that our alternative device will work in any application. Careful evaluation of the specifications and testing of the samples is strongly recommended before certifying full compliance of the AMIC product within the application.
